The screenshot shows the 'Endicia for Mac' application window. The title bar reads 'Endicia for Mac'. The top navigation bar contains several buttons: 'New Label', 'Buy Postage', 'Mailing Log', 'Addresses', 'Printer Setup', and 'Printable Postage'. A red arrow points to the 'Printer Setup' button. Below the navigation bar, the main interface displays account information: 'Endicia™ Account 515372 is Active. Balance is $597.78. Shipping to Zebra LP2844.' The 'From' field is set to 'buyolympia' and the 'To' field is empty. Below this, the recipient's name and address are listed: 'Pat Castaldo, buyolympia.com, 3925 N Mississippi Ave, Portland OR 97227'. The 'Zone' is '5' and the 'Status' is 'Invalid', with a 'Validate' button. The 'Mailing Details' section includes a table of account balances and shipping options. The 'Optional Details' section has checkboxes for insurance and reply postage, along with fields for description, value, reference number, email, and phone. A 'Print Label' button is at the bottom right.
